

Community Engagement: Starting the Conversation

Re-imagined Spaces

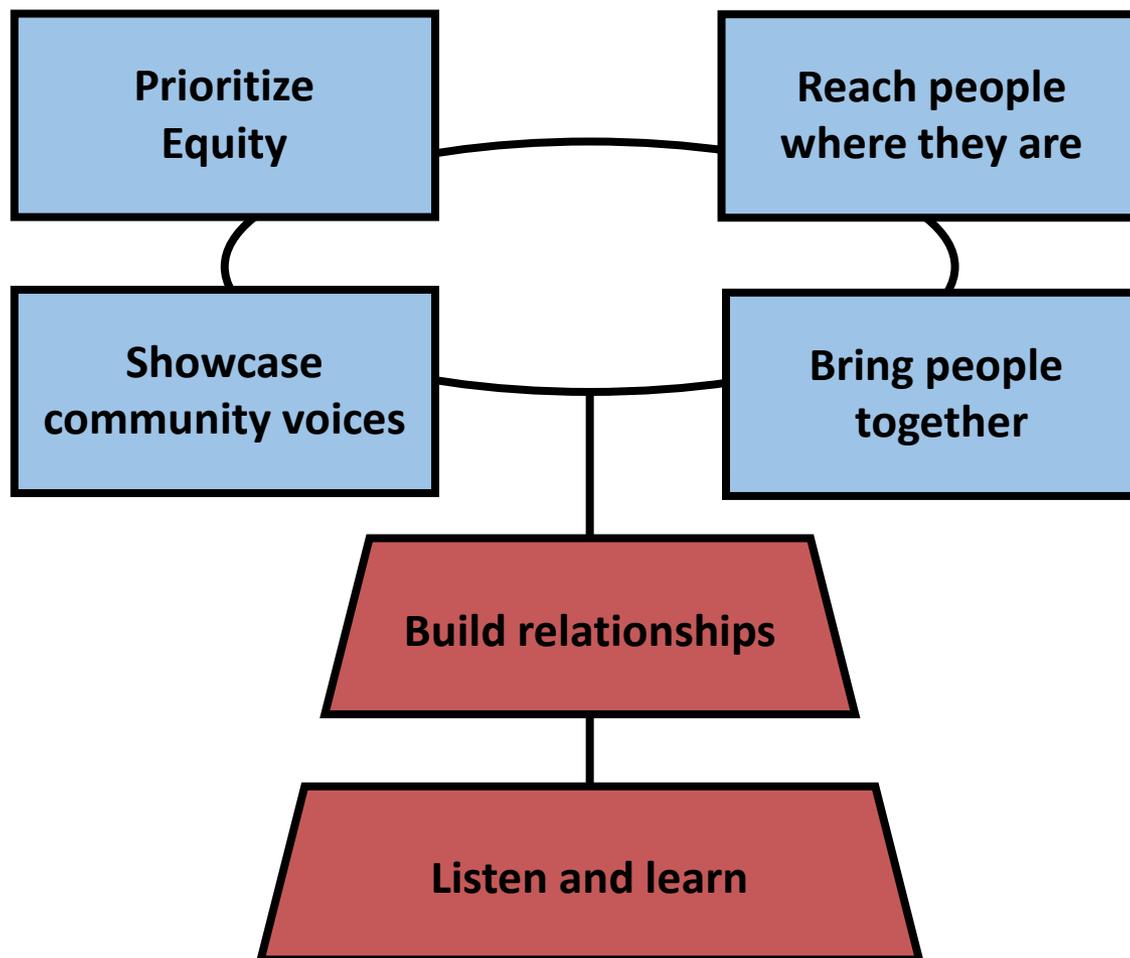

Youth and Family Learning

Seattle Culture and History

Technology and Access

Community Engagement

Community Engagement at The Seattle Public Library relies on listening and relationship building to develop Library programs, services, and collections that reflect community needs and interests, feature community voices, and create meaningful experiences that bring people, information and ideas together to enrich lives and build community.

Laying the groundwork:
Listen, Learn, Connect

Listen

Learn

Community Listening

Connect

Relationship Building

Guiding principles:
Program of Service

Prioritize Equity

Prioritize Equity

Distribution of resources

Prioritize Equity

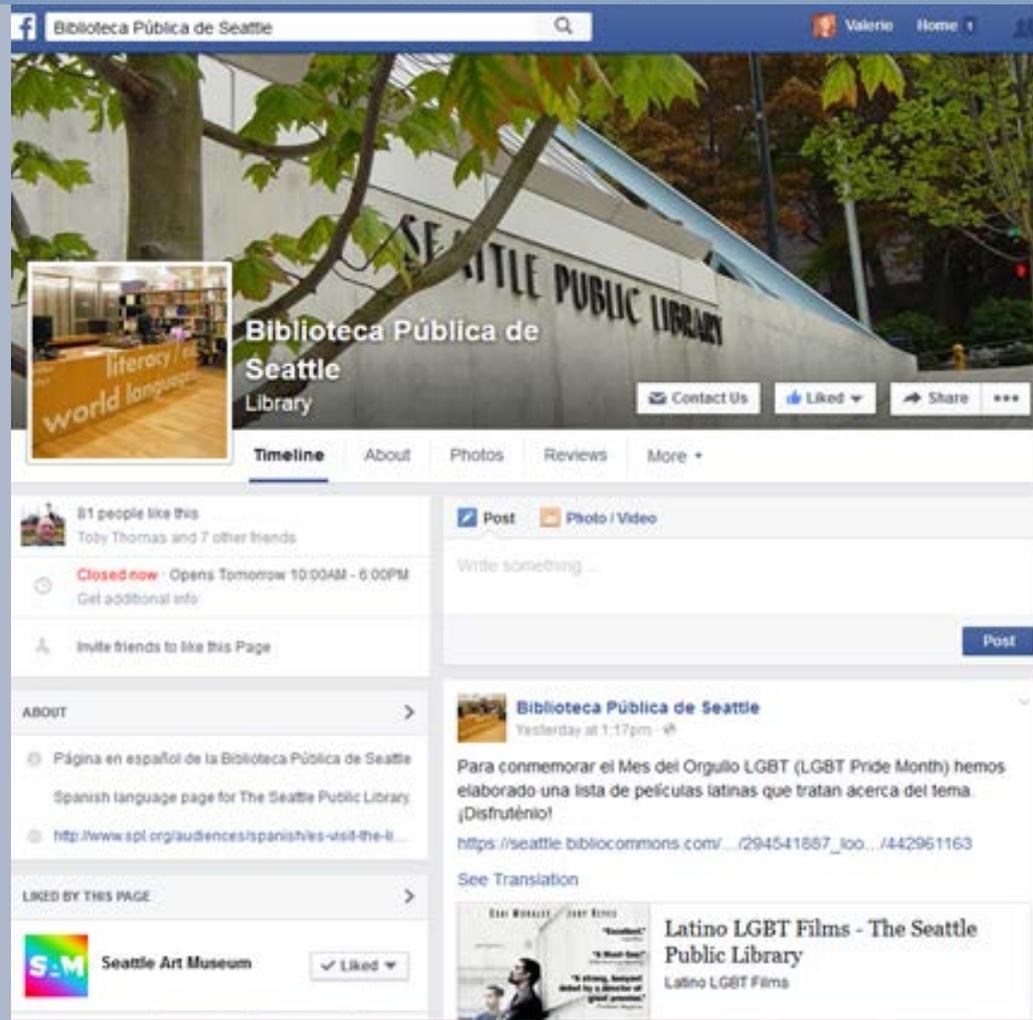

Build awareness of equity issues

Reach people where they are

Remove barriers to access

Reach people where they are

The image shows a screenshot of the Facebook page for the Biblioteca Pública de Seattle. The page header includes the name 'Biblioteca Pública de Seattle' and a search bar. The main cover image features the exterior of the library building with the text 'SEATTLE PUBLIC LIBRARY' and 'Biblioteca Pública de Seattle Library'. Below the cover image are navigation tabs for 'Timeline', 'About', 'Photos', 'Reviews', and 'More'. The left sidebar shows that 81 people like the page, including Toby Thomas and 7 other friends. It also displays the library's hours: 'Closed now · Opens Tomorrow 10:00AM - 6:00PM' and an option to 'Invite friends to like this Page'. The 'ABOUT' section lists the page as the 'Spanish language page for The Seattle Public Library' with a URL: 'http://www.spl.org/audiences/spanish/es-visit-the-li...'. The 'LIKED BY THIS PAGE' section shows the Seattle Art Museum has liked the page. The main content area shows a post from 'Biblioteca Pública de Seattle' dated 'Yesterday at 1:17pm'. The post text reads: 'Para conmemorar el Mes del Orgullo LGBT (LGBT Pride Month) hemos elaborado una lista de películas latinas que tratan acerca del tema ¡Disfruténlo!' and includes a link: 'https://seattle.bibliocommons.com/.../294541867_1oo.../442961163'. Below the text is a 'See Translation' link and a featured image titled 'Latino LGBT Films - The Seattle Public Library' with the subtitle 'Latino LGBT Films'.

Reach people where they are

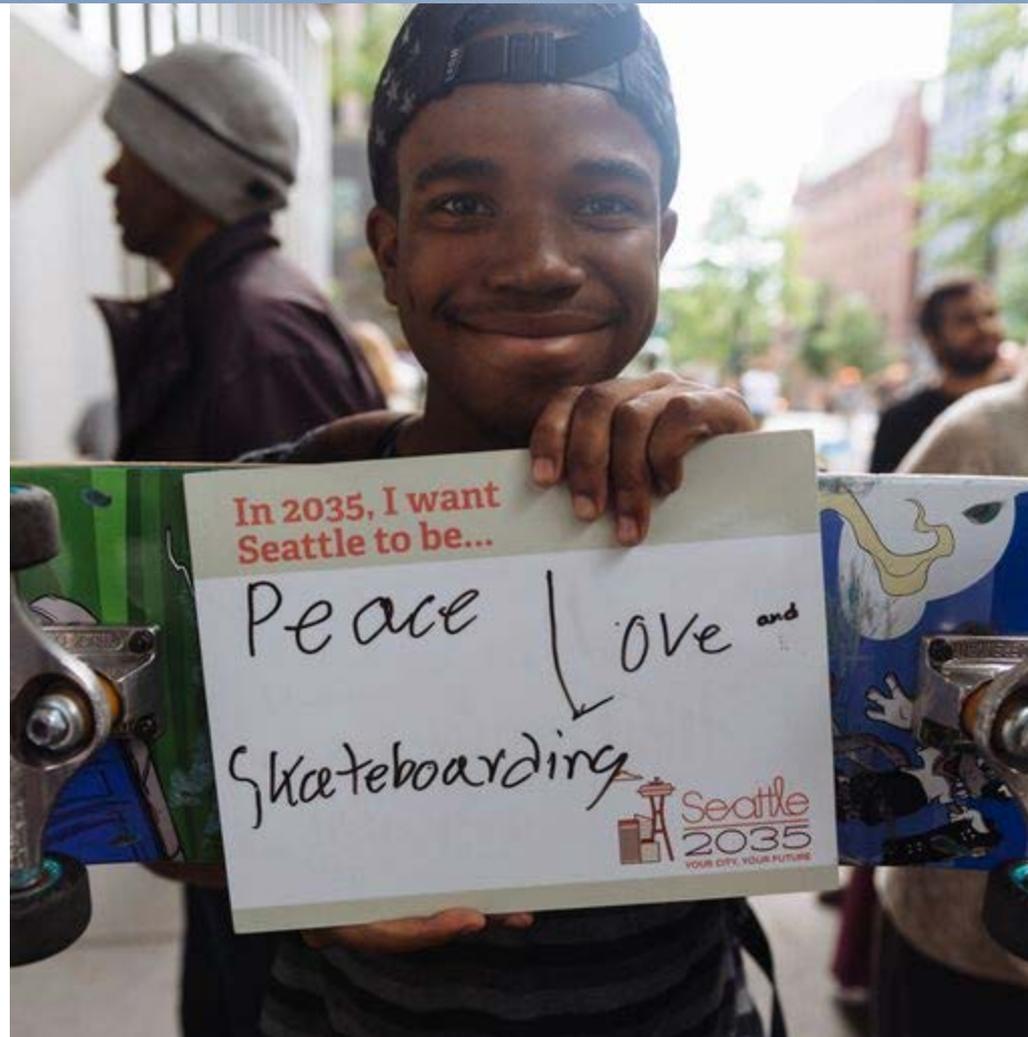

Bring people together

Bring cross-sections of community together

Bring people together

Promote dialog and interaction

Showcase community voices

STORY CORPS AT NEW HOLLY

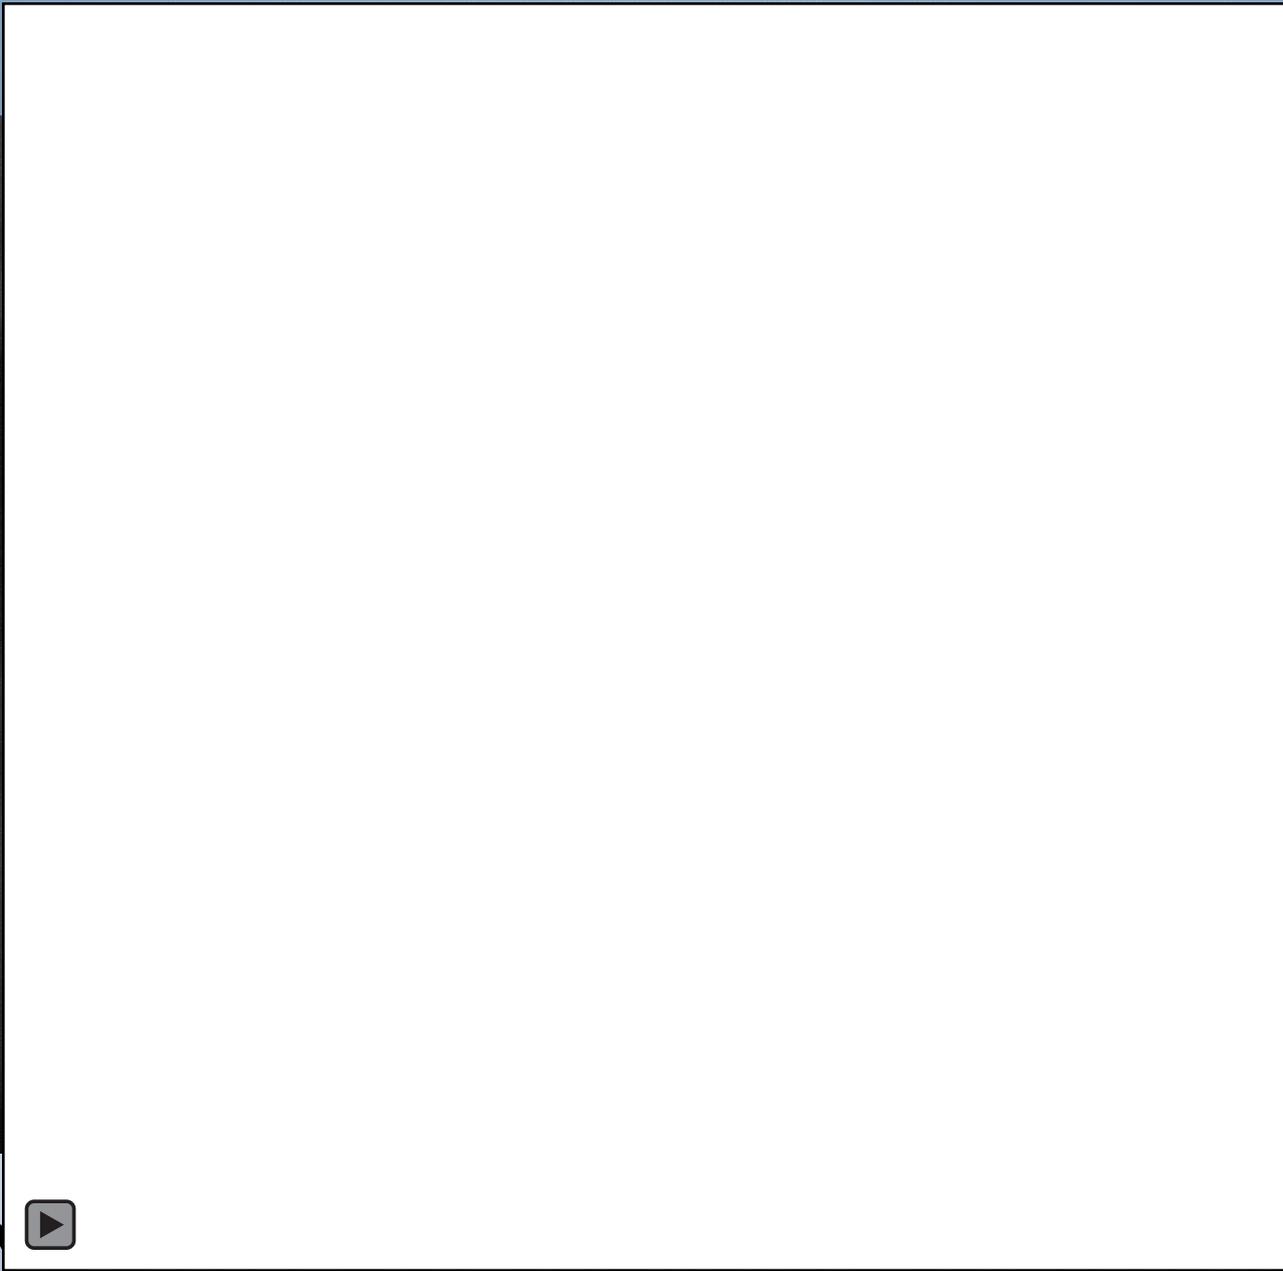

LIBROS Y MÁS

LIBROS Y MÁS

LEGENDARY CHILDREN

COPIES OF EACH AVAILABLE TITLE

Thank you!

chance.hunt@spl.org

davida.ingram@spl.org

hayden.bass@spl.org

valerie.wonder@spl.org