About Ireland

Ireland is an island east of Britain, with about 5 million people.

Ireland's economy is agricultural and includes tourism.

Dublin is the capital of Ireland.

English is spoken and Irish (Gaelic) is heard on the western seaboard

Saint Patrick's Day is celebrated on March 17th.

March is Irish American Heritage Month.

Celtic knots were decorative knots made by Celts.

The Claddagh ring is a traditional ring given in friendship or worn as a wedding ring. The design has two hands (friendship) clasping a heart (love), with a crown (loyalty).

The legend of the Blarney stone in the Blarney Castle says if you kiss it, you will have the gift of "gab" or flattery.

More than 1 million people died during The Irish Potato Famine, from 1845-1851. Also, 1.5 million emigrated, many to America. The "luck of the Irish" is a popular saying because they have overcome many obstacles.

Irish leprechauns, fairies and other "wee folk" are characters in Irish folklore. Legend says that at the end of every rainbow is a leprechaun who can tell you where a pot of gold is located.

A shamrock is a three-leaved white clover and a symbol of Ireland.
