Technology Training for Seniors

There were 76 million births in the United States from 1946 to 1964, inclusive, the 19 years usually called the "baby boom."

“There is a large segment of the boomer population that is healthy, active, engage, relatively financially secure and read to enjoy the fruits of their labor.”

Classes began in 2002 by closing down our adult public access computers.

Portable computer lab

Special keyboards and mice offer seniors assistance and an alternative way to accessing technology.

Something as simple as turning on a computer can be overwhelming to someone what has never done it."

Your Start Button is GREEN located in the lower left hand corner.

“Seniors require lots of one-on-one assistance.”

Use your young staff members or volunteers to train. They make wonderful trainers.

“Access to technology and all its benefits should be a right, and not a privilege.”

“Life is what happens to you while you're busy making other plans”
